PRESIDENT'S INVITATION

In Québec, the AQUEST hands out a coveted award every year to promote the presentation of talks and posters by graduates on research projects in our universities.

Enter the Québec Exploration AQUEST contest and your presentation could earn you a framed certificate of excellence and a $800 bursary. The winner's name will also be permanently entered on the honor roll on the association's website.

The AQUEST Award will be presented at the convention's official award ceremony. Your participation is a key to promoting cooperation between members of AQUEST, a major link in the earth sciences network.

AQUEST GEOSCIENCE EXHIBITORS

The contest is open to Master's and Ph.D. students at Quebec's universities. Master's and Ph.D. students in universities outside of Quebec may participate, provided their field work is carried out in Quebec and their dissertation or thesis relating to the Province of Quebec.

We encourage participants to present their posters in French. Posters in English will nevertheless be accepted.
